

Power Telematics, Inc. Satisfaction Guarantee and Return Policy

Power Telematics is all about customer loyalty and satisfaction and our guarantee is simple.

If you are not completely happy with our products or services, you can return the product within 90 days of purchase for a complete refund.

We also do not require a monitoring contract as we expect to earn your business every day. If you need to cancel the monitoring service for a unit, simply provide a 30-day written notice and we will credit any unused portion of the annual monitoring plan.
